

Complaints Procedure

Adopted: Autumn 2017

Review Date: Summer 2020

Purpose: To establish a procedure for dealing with complaints relating to Great Oaks College (GOC)

Scope: All matters relating to the actions of staff and application of College procedures where they affect the individual students concerned.

General Principles:

- At Great Oaks College we seek to provide a high quality professional service to students and families at all times. We welcome comments and wish to work with our families to improve our school.
- Any complaint will be taken seriously and where action is needed this will be taken quickly. If there is no appropriate action that can be or needs to be taken parents will be informed of the reasons.
- To allow for a proper investigation, complaints should be brought to the attention of the College as soon as possible. Any matter raised more than 3 months after the event being complained of will not be considered, save in exceptional circumstances.
- All complaints will be dealt with within 5 days of being received so far as this is possible.
- Anonymous complaints cannot be investigated under this procedure unless there are exceptional circumstances.

Part A Complaining about the actions of a member of staff other than the Head of College.

1) Informal Stage

It is hoped that most complaints can be dealt with informally. Anyone wishing to make a complaint should speak to a member of the College senior leadership team; a Head of Department, Assistant Head, Deputy or the Head of College. They will try to resolve the issue as quickly as possible to the satisfaction of the complainant.

2) Formal Stage

If the complaint is not resolved at the informal stage the complaint should be put in writing to the Head of College, who will be responsible for holding a formal investigation. The investigation will take an appropriate form depending on the nature of the complaint.

The investigation will begin as soon as possible and when it has been concluded, the complainant will be informed in writing of the outcome. This may be to the effect that:

- There is insufficient evidence to reach a conclusion, so the complaint cannot be upheld
- The concern is not substantiated by the evidence
- The concern was substantiated in part or in full. Some details may then be given of action the College may be taking to review procedures, details of the investigation or of any disciplinary procedures will not be released

The complainant will be told that consideration of their complaint is now finished.

If the complainant is not satisfied with the manner in which the process has been followed, they may request that the Board of GOC review the process followed by the Head of College in handling the complaint. This must be made in writing within 2 weeks of receiving notice of the outcome from the Head of College. The procedure described in Part C will be followed.

If the complainant considers that the decision of the Head of College is incorrect or that the Head of College has acted unreasonably in considering the complaint, then the complainant may bring a complaint against the Head of College under part B of this procedure.

Part B Complaining about the actions of the Head of College in dealing with a complaint

1) Informal stage

It is expected that most complaints will be dealt with informally. The complainant should arrange to speak directly with the Head of College. In the case of serious concerns it may be appropriate to raise them directly with the Chair of the Board of GOC.

2) Formal Stage

If the complaint is not resolved at the informal stage the complaint should be put in writing to the Chair of the board of GOC, who will be responsible for holding a formal investigation. The investigation will take an appropriate form depending on the nature of the complaint.

The Head of College will be provided with a copy of the complaint. Once there has been an opportunity for the Head of College to consider this, he/she will be invited to meet separately with the Chair, and to present written a response.

When the investigation has been concluded, the complainant and the Head of College will be informed in writing of the outcome. The complainant will not be informed of any disciplinary or capability action.

The complainant will be told that consideration of their complaint by the Chair is now finished.

If the complainant is not satisfied with the manner in which the process has been followed, or thinks that the decision of the Chair is incorrect, or that the Chair has acted unreasonably in considering the complaint, then the complainant may request that the Governing Body review the handling of the complaint by the Chair. This request must be made in writing within 2 weeks of receiving notice of the outcome from the Chair, and include a statement specifying any perceived failures.

Part C Review Process

Any review of the process followed by the Head of College or the Chair shall be conducted by a panel of 3 members of the Board.

The review will normally be conducted through a consideration of written submissions, but reasonable requests to make oral representations should be considered.

The panel will first receive written evidence from the complainant.

The panel will then invite the Head of College or the Chair, as appropriate, to make a response to the complaint.

The panel may also have access to the records kept of the process followed.

The complainant, and the Head of College or the Chair, as appropriate, will be informed in writing of the outcome. This may be to the effect that:

- There is insufficient evidence to reach a conclusion, so the complaint cannot be upheld
- The concern is not substantiated by the evidence
- The concern was substantiated in part or in full but that the procedural failure did not affect the outcome significantly so the matter is now closed.
- The concern was substantiated in part or in full and the Board will take steps to prevent a recurrence or to rectify the situation where this is practicable

The complainant is not entitled to access to any details of the investigation except for any statements that may have been provided by their young person. Any information relating to the application of disciplinary procedures is strictly confidential.

The complainant may complain to the Education Skills Funding Agency (ESFA) if they remain unhappy with the outcome. Guidance on how to do this is available from the ESFA website:
